

MOVING BEYOND THE RHETORIC:

How the Trump Administration & 115th Congress Can Elevate Women's and Girls' Voices

Join CARE and these Distinguished Speakers

as we explore the case for empowering women and girls through economic empowerment and how we can accelerate change for those affected by humanitarian crises. You'll hear from leaders and change agents who are making a lasting impact to save lives, defeat poverty and achieve social justice for women and girls around the world.

INAUGURAL

Helene D. Gayle
GLOBAL DEVELOPMENT SYMPOSIUM
WASHINGTON, DC
MARCH 16, 2017

Helene D. Gayle
CEO, McKinsey Social Initiative

Secretary Madeleine Albright

Michelle Nunn
President and CEO, CARE

Charlayne Hunter-Gault
Award-winning Journalist

Cindy Huang
Visiting Policy Fellow, Center for Global Development

Congressman Ed Royce
(R-CA 39th District)

Rajiv Shah
President, The Rockefeller Foundation

Leymah Gbowee
Nobel Laureate

Zainab Salbi
Founder of Women for Women International, Author & TV Host

Amina Doherty
Global Fund for Women Board Member

Anne Richard
Visiting Fellow, University of Pennsylvania and Adjunct Professor, Georgetown

Nicedore Nkurunziza
Program Manager, CARE International in Burundi

Raj Kumar
Founding President & Editor-in-Chief, Devex

Top of the Hill | 1 Constitution Avenue NE | Washington, DC 20002
1-5 p.m. with reception to follow

RSVP

